NATHANIEL KEEFE IS DEAD

PIONEER OF BODEGA DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Deceased Resided In Bodega For Forty Years—Funeral Thursday

Nathaniel Keefe, one of the oldest and wealthiest residents of Bodega, passed away at his ranch near Bodega Corners this morning. Death was due to a general breaking down. For some time Mr. Keefe was in St. Joseph's hospital, receiving treatment, but, knowing that his days were nearly ended, he requested that he be taken to his old home to be with his family at the last. His wish was gratified and last November he was brought to the old homestead, where the light of his life slowly waned. About two months ago deceased's son, James, died at St. Joseph's hospital.

Nathaniel Keefe was born in Ireland and was sixty-three years of age. Besides a widow, he left the following children: Mrs. Mamie Quinlan, Mrs. Maggie Fitzpatrick, John, Thomas, and Miss Mamie Keefe and the late James Keefe.

Mr. Keefe came to California in the early days and has been engaged in farming in Bodega for the last forty years. He was a man of considerable wealth, and owned several ranches in Bodega.

The funeral will take place Thursday morning at 10 o'clock a. m., from the late home. In the Bodega cemetery the remains will be laid to rest beside his son who just a couple of months ago, crossed over the border which divides time from eternity. Six grandsons of the deceased will act as pallbearers.
