When Susan C. Morrow was born on September 24, 1838, in Belfast, Antrim, Northern Ireland, her father, David, was 18. She married Henry Stump on October 22, 1864, in Bodega, California. They had four children during their marriage. She died on June 7, 1932, in Bloomfield, California, at the age of 93.

MRS. S. STUMP PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Susan Stump, one of the oldest residents of Sonoma county, both in the term of residence here and also in age, passed away on Tuesday morning at the home of her son, John Stump at Bloomfield where she has been residing for a long time, and her passing removes a pioneer who was one of the connecting ties between the present and the pioneer days.

A daughter of David Morrow, she was born in Belfast, Ireland, September 24, 1838, so was aged 93 years, 8 months and 13 days.

She came to California 72 years ago, locating first at Bloomfield, then moving to Bodega and returning in 1889 to Bloomfield where she has since resided, the patriarchal mother of the district, and known to all within a radius of many miles. She wedded Henry Stump who passed away years ago, since which time she has resided with her children and was given the most devoted care and attention. She had been failing in health for some time and there is a strange coincidence relative to her death, for Mrs. Martha Fet-tes, who passed away at her home at Roblar on Monday night, had been the nurse in charge of Mrs. Stump for some time, and up to quite recently. Now both patient and nurse have been called within a few hours of each other and their silent forms repose at the same chapel, although they died miles apart.

Mrs. Stump is survived by her sons, David, John and William Stump, prominent residents of the Bloomfield district, by seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. The only surviving member of her own immediate family is a cousin, Ellen Day of Belfast, Ireland, now aged 86 years.

Mrs. Stump was a remarkable woman, and has had a most fruitful and splendid life. The nonagenarian was loved by all who knew her and has reared a fine family, and she often visited here with members of her family, to do her trading and had many friends here among the old time residents, few of whom are left. She was one of the last of a coterie of old time pioneer settlers. It had been hoped that she might live to attain the century mark.

Mrs. Stump's body was brought to the Mount chapel, 216 Washington street, where it reposes, the funeral arrangements not having as yet been made.
